

Nutley CE Primary School

Parents' Voice October 2023

Thank you to the families who responded to our Questionnaire during October's Parent/Teacher Consultation. We are delighted with the overwhelmingly positive outcomes of the questionnaire and are reviewing areas of improvement that have been identified.

We care about parent voice - as it enables parents to have a say and get involved in their child's education. Parents' voice plays a key role in strengthening partnerships between school and home. There are many opportunities to take part in parent voice activities at Nutley CE Primary School for example by contacting your child's class teacher if you want to raise questions, taking part in surveys or consultations, attending parents' evenings or becoming a parent governor.

The purpose of the recent questionnaire is:

- to enable parents and carers to convey their perception about the school and share ideas;
- to strengthen the partnership between home and school.

Overall, the parents and carers of children attending Nutley CE Primary School are very satisfied with the school, their children's education, the progress they are making, the school's ethos relating to behaviour and the wider personal development of the children.

The suggestions that the school will act upon is looking into the amount of homework that is set each week as well as ensuring that learning materials are representative in terms of ethnicity and gender.

Comments:

Homework is found too basic and child often finishes it very quickly.

I think that currently T. is falling behind in maths and this is currently our only concern. She is generally happy.

Love Nutley!

Fab School!

I feel the SENCO needs to be in more. Also, communication regarding SEN and policy changes would be good.

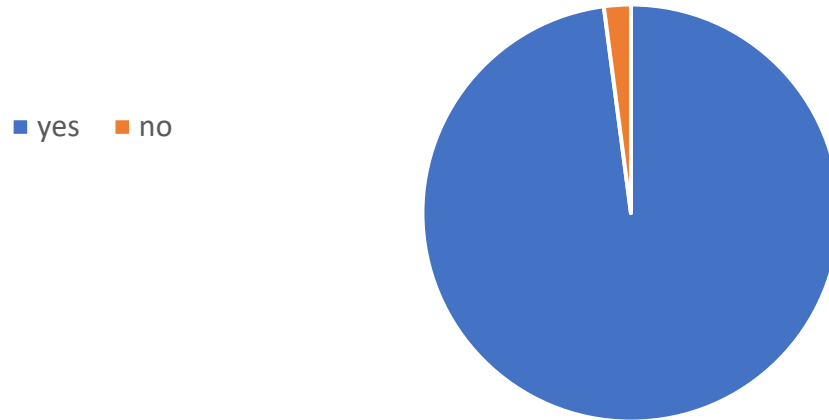

A fantastic school, very supportive for children and parents

SENCO on site more regularly would be beneficial to all children.

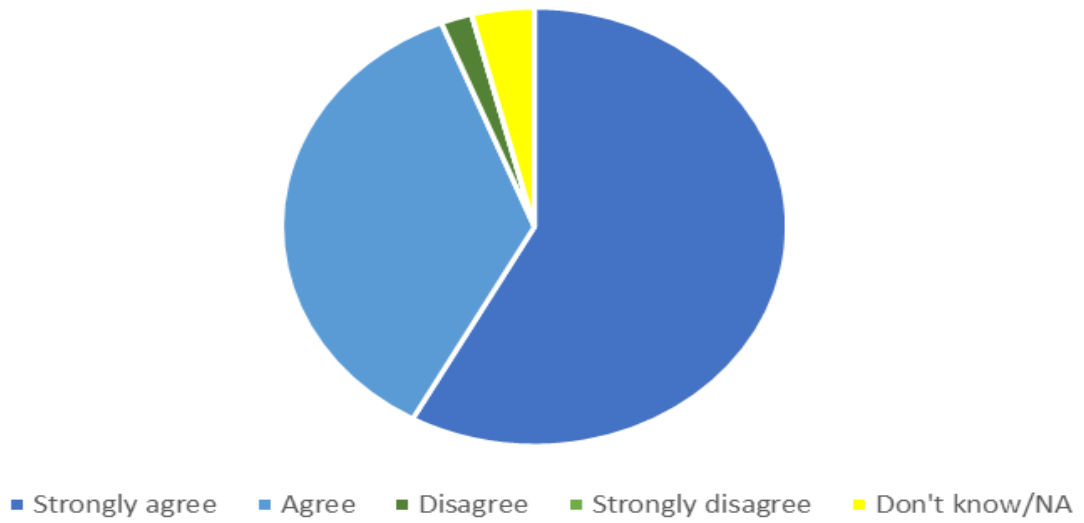

She has done very well and seems very bright. No problems and even with moving schools.

We are very happy at Nutley; the teachers and all the staff are a brilliant team!

I would recommend this school to other parents.
