

Nutley CE Primary School

Parents Voice March 2025

This feedback highlights the many strengths of the school, with some excellent opportunities to build on existing communication and foster even stronger relationships with parents.

- Overall satisfaction: Parents are very pleased with their child's happiness, safety, and communication regarding their child's learning.
- Opportunities for improvement: While most parents feel the school handles bullying and behaviour management well, some think that the school could communicate more or clarify its approach.
- Strong academic performance: Most parents feel their children are performing well at the school, and the school is seen to have high expectations for all students.
- SEND support: For the small group of children with special educational needs, the feedback is extremely positive, with all parents agreeing the school provides the necessary support.
- Communication and curriculum: Parents are pleased with how the school communicates their child's progress and offers a wide range of subjects and extracurricular activities, ensuring a well-rounded education. Some parents feel that the school's expectations could be higher, and there may be an opportunity to engage parents more effectively on this matter.
- Personal development: While the majority believe the school supports their child's wider personal development, a small number of parents feel the school could do more in terms of personal development support, which could be an area for further focus.
- Overall satisfaction: The school enjoys strong support from parents, with most willing to recommend it to others. Overall, the school is performing well in most areas, and parents are largely very satisfied with both the academic and extracurricular offerings.
